ENCOURAGING EXAM RESULTS

STUDENTS from across Pulman's Country received their A-level results on Thursday, August 18th, and it was another encouraging outcome.

After a tense few weeks for students, the grades were released at 8.30am and with more competition for university places than ever before many youngsters at sixth form centres in Axminster, Colyton, Honiton, Lyme Regis and Ottery St Mary had a reason to celebrate.

In Axminster, Axe Valley Community College head Martin Smith described the A-level results as "encouraging".

Students at the specialist business and enterprise college achieved a 100 per cent pass rate at grades A to E with a 65 per cent pass rate at grades A to C.

Mr Smith said in a statement issued by the college: "We are delighted with the results. Our pass rate was 100 per cent with a significant improvement in the A to C pass rate up to 65 per cent."

"Many students have performed superbly and we are very proud of their achievements."

"Our most able students achieved more A* to B grades than we had predicted and many of these students are going to top universities."

"Special mention must be paid to our maths department

By ANDERS LARSSON
AND BEN MIDDLETON

who achieved a 100 per cent A* to B pass rate.

"Our vocational courses, usually offered to less academic students, achieved truly excellent results and again many of these students are set to continue their studies in higher education."

"We now see our strategies for student academic improvement achieving end results and these strategies will enable future year groups to perform even better."

"We would like to wish our Year 13 leavers good luck for the future, whether that be at university, training or employment."

"I would like to thank all of the Axe Valley staff for their tremendous hard work in supporting Year 13."

More than half the students at Colyton Grammar School achieved at least one A* grade and 72 per cent of all A-level grades at the school were A to A*.

Many students from the school will be attending Oxbridge at the start of the new academic year including Sam Mortimer and Tom Oldfield who both achieved five A* grades each.

Headteacher Paul Evans said: "Students should be proud of exceptionally good results across the board this summer."

"For some, competing for places has been more of a challenge than usual but we expect the vast majority to secure a place at university this autumn."

"We've maintained last year's record of 16 going to Oxbridge and nine reading medicine."

A 13 per cent rise in A-level A* to B grades has topped a successful summer term for Honiton Community College after the school also received a 'good' Ofsted report back in June.

The results have been praised by Glenn Smith, principal at Honiton, and dozens of sixth form students at the college will be going on to university after achieving the required grades.

Mr Smith said: "The 2011 Year 13 cohort results are the best in recent years. Results reflect the rise in standards at Honiton Community College and a firm foundation for further improvements in our success rates at post-16."

"On behalf of the college governors I would like to thank students, parents and staff for maintaining a positive and proactive partnership."

'Vulnerable' person found

BEER-BASED Coastguard officers assisted police in a search for a man who was reported missing on Thursday, August 18th.

The search started at about 11am and also involved an RAF helicopter and an independent lifeboat from Sidmouth.

A vulnerable person had gone missing from the Sidmouth area.

A Coastguard spokesperson said: "The person was eventually located in the Seaton area and detained for his own safety."

Open event for lifeboat

AXE Yacht Club is to hold an open day in aid of the RNLI on Sunday, August 28th from 10am to 5pm.

There will be morning coffee, teas and lunches as well as stalls, a raffle, a tombola, bric-a-brac and a boat jumble.

Wendy Cummins, RNLI Seaton, Beer and District branch secretary, said: "Axe Yacht Club has supported our branch of the RNLI for many years and have raised many thousands of pounds for the RNLI."

PECORAMA'S Dr Who Charity Day raised a total of £6,351.81 for Force, a charity combatting cancer and supporting sufferers in various ways.

The fundraiser was staged on Sunday, July 10th, and a cheque presentation took place about a month later on Friday, August 5th.

A group known as Exewing Fundraisers staged the event, and its members were thrilled with the response from the crowds.

It was Pecorama's busiest day of the season so far, with 1,350 visitors passing through the gate.

A Pecorama spokesperson said: "The event was a tremendous success thanks to the hard work and dedication of the organisers and the enthusiasm and excitement of all the willing helpers and participants on the day."

Rendell fire 'deliberate'

A FIRE in disused industrial premises on the outskirts of Axminster on Friday, August 19th was started deliberately, according to the fire and rescue service.

Fire crews were dispatched to the former Rodney Rendell site off Chard Road just before 5pm.

A spokesperson for Devon and Somerset Fire and Rescue Service said a mattress inside was alight and the fire also involved an oxygen cylinder.

The fire was described as "started deliberately".

Fire crews were on the scene for more than two hours.

Students 'credit to families'

Hugh praise for rescuers

"Best wishes to all our college leavers. We look forward to hearing of your future exploits and success anon."

Overall the number of students who gained an A-level qualification at Honiton Community College has risen to 96 per cent.

It was another excellent year for A-level students at The King's School in Ottery St Mary.

Students scored a 100 per cent pass rate with 53 per cent of all grades being A* to B and 25 per cent of students reaching the highest grades of A* and A.

In a joint-statement, headteacher Faith Jarrett and chair of governors Edward Bloomfield said: "These results were obviously the culmination of a great deal of hard work by the students supported by their families."

"University places this year are extremely tight so we are waiting to hear the outcome of any clearing applications but have been really pleased to be able to celebrate with all those who have secured their place already.

"Many thanks also to the staff who have worked really hard to support the students in achieving these results."

"We are delighted that the students have achieved so many personal successes but we are equally pleased with the huge commitment these young people have made to life across the school and beyond including the wide range of additional qualifications and achievements from Ten Tors and leadership programmes through to some excellent results in the new extended project.

"They really are a credit to themselves and to their families and we all wish them every success for the future."

Forty-five per cent of Woodroffe students in Lyme Regis gained at least one A*, A or B grade, a statistic that was described as impressive by headteacher Dr Richard Seward.

The overall percentage of students reaching grades A* to E was 99 per cent.

Dr Seward said: "As ever, this is a very impressive set of results and I am delighted that so many of our students have done so well."

"I am particularly pleased that the vast majority have secured places at the universities of their choice, despite the very worrying picture nationally."

"A-level students work incredibly hard nowadays and, though it is fashionable to assume that standards have declined, the amount of work sixth formers now have to do has made gaining qualifications at this level in many ways much harder than it used to be."

"Students now have to take modules throughout the year, as well as examinations at the end of the course, and they also have to complete some very demanding coursework assignments."

"They also tend to take four AS-levels and then go on to take three A-levels, with some tackling additional qualifications like the Extended Project, Critical Thinking or General Studies."

"The hard work of A-level students should not, therefore, be underestimated, nor should we forget the added pressures caused by the demands of the university system and the increasing competition for places."

"Finally, I am sure that the students would also wish me to acknowledge the hard work and commitment of the teaching staff at Woodroffe who work tirelessly to help students achieve the best results they can."

HUGH Fearnley-Whittingstall has praised maritime rescue services after he had a mishap at sea on Monday, August 15th.

Mr Fearnley-Whittingstall was onboard a motor-boat with his son in the afternoon.

◆ HUGH Fearnley-Whittingstall

Just before 4pm, Sidmouth Independent Rescue Boat and Beer-based Coastguard rescue officers were tasked following a 999 call from the boat, which was aground west of Beer Head.

A Coastguard spokesperson said: "The lifeboat proceeded as the Coastguard operator kept the casualty on the phone advising him."

"The boat was pulled off the rocks by the lifeboat using a crewman swimmer, and beached at Beer for inspection."

Mr Fearnley-Whittingstall said: "I want to say a massive thank you to both the Portland Coastguard and the Sidmouth lifeboat team. We got ourselves into a sticky situation and their response was fantastic."

"It is great to know that when things go wrong at sea we have a brilliant and dedicated team of men and women standing by to make sure incidents and accidents don't become disasters."

Webster's low league developer?

THE owner of an Axminster eyesore might have to sell to a "lower league developer", who could turn it into a "Skoda"-style budget scheme.

This is because "major players" can't visualise an appealing shopping experience in Axminster because of heavy traffic and narrow pavements.

The somewhat gloomy picture was painted by well-known auctioneer Graham Barton, who also represents the Plymouth-based owner of the derelict Webster's complex in Axminster.

Mr Barton attended a meeting of Axminster Town Council on Friday, August 19th and said that talks had been held with "major players" over the last 12 months.

The recurring comment from major players is, according to Mr Barton, that the shopping experience in Axminster is "not particularly good" because of heavy traffic volumes, narrow pavements and no scope to pedestrianise.

Another problem is that Axminster is seen as a "big village" as opposed to a town.

If the traffic situation isn't addressed, the owner of the Webster's complex could be left with two options — to leave it as it is or sell it to a lower league developer.

Mr Barton apologised to anyone in the council chamber who might own a Skoda car, before saying that the chosen lower league developer could build "a Skoda scheme for today".

Mr Barton added: "The problem is that it will be fine today for Axminster, but not tomorrow."

Last Friday's meeting was called so councillors could decide the strategy for a presentation to East Devon District Council's Local Development Framework Panel on Tuesday, September 6th.

The town council has been invited to make a ten-minute presentation to the panel as part of new consultation.

It was decided that town councillor Jeremy Walden will make the presentation, which will be largely based on Axminster Community Enterprise's (ACE) Vision of Axminster 2030 document.

Among other things, Vision of Axminster 2030 calls for a north-south relief road to reduce the number of heavy vehicles in the town centre.

The Folly Nursery and Pre-School

The Folly relocates to a fabulous new premises

The Folly Nursery and Pre-School are excited to announce their relocation to Dalwood Primary School. The nursery was originally started in 1995 by Geoffrey Wilmot, and for the last ten years has been located within the beautiful grounds of The Manor House School in Honiton. The Folly has always boasted a large outdoor space for the children to learn and play in, and it's new location will lend itself perfectly to the ethos of the nursery 'there's no such thing as bad weather, only unsuitable clothing.'

There are more positive changes a foot for The Folly, as owner Geoffrey and manager Helen Freeman go into partnership together, to strengthen the management even further. Geoffrey said 'Helen has worked for me since 1998 so I know all of her strengths and skills, we saw this as the perfect opportunity to move forward together.'

As well as Helen, twelve members of staff will be making the move to Dalwood, along with most of the children.

The Folly accept children from birth to five years, and older children up to the age of eight in the school holidays.

Children can enjoy a large array of activities including forest school activities, which takes the curriculum outside and gives children the chance to run, jump and play whilst they learn. This is available to children aged three and above, allowing them to develop into confident young people ready for school.

Dalwood Primary School offers a vast outside space to include an adventure play area, a pond, a playground and a playing field, in which the children are encouraged to play and learn in, come rain or shine. The Folly follows the Early Years Foundation Stage curriculum and accepts the Early Years funding which entitles each child to fifteen hours a week free child care once they are three.

The nursery is open 51 weeks a year from 7.45am-6pm, and is registered with Ofsted. Limited spaces are available for September.

PLANS ON EXTRAORDINARY MEETING AGENDA

By BEN MIDDLETON
ben@indlenews.co.uk

HONITON Town Council is set to apply for planning permission for its community complex.

At an extraordinary meeting of the town council, held as this newspaper went to press last night (Monday), the matter was due to be discussed.

On the meeting agenda it stated: "Following a meeting with East Devon District Council, the chairman (of Honiton Town Council) resolves to apply for planning permission to East Devon District Council with respect to the community complex."

As previously reported in Pulman's View, Honiton Town

Council is hoping to build the community complex on land at Dowell Street, close to the old magistrates' court.

The town council had originally planned to build the complex on land at Lace Walk, however, district councillors withdrew their offer of this parcel of land.

Plans for a community complex in Honiton have split opinions between residents in the town.

A town poll was held in June 2010 and hundreds of residents turned out to cast their vote.

Just over 900 people took part in the poll — around 10 per cent of the electorate — and the results showed that 662 people voted against the plans and 257 people voted for them.

Despite a landslide 'no' vote from those who voted, Honiton

Town Council has always vowed to continue with its plans for the community complex.

In March this year, a bitter war of words was exchanged between several town councillors during an extraordinary meeting that was called to discuss the current and future situation of the proposed building.

During the debate, that lasted almost an hour, fierce words were exchanged and tempers began to fray.

District councillor Peter Halse said: "I was strongly against this project 25 or 30 years ago. But Honiton needs facilities like this. Are we willing to take a risk or let it all pass us over?"

"It will hurt all of us in the pocket, we will face the cost and the pain but we do this for our children and our grandchildren and we do it for the town.

"Honiton has always been backward in contributing money for local projects."

Councillor Roy Coombs said: "The site is still on the A373, it is still on Dowell Street and we all know the traffic problems down there. It looks to me like the car park is made up land and this is a great concern. It is wrong to limit ourselves to one site."

Councillor Ron Farnham added: "It worries me considerably about the state of the land in Dowell Street car park and the suitability to build on it. There has always been problems with drainage on the site."

"I would hate us to go ahead only to find out that it [the land] isn't suitable and we have to find extra costs."

Ideas to keep youths from leaving

YOUNG people from across east Devon are planning to leave the district in their droves according to the results of a consultation event held by East Devon District Council (EDDC).

However, councillors have agreed to look at how they can try and persuade younger residents to stay.

Following a meeting of the Local Development Framework Panel (LDF) on Tuesday last, district councillors have said they will be carrying out further studies into the needs of young people in their late teens and early 20s.

In 2010 EDDC carried out consultation with young people across east Devon and the results show that in Axminster 68 per cent of young people thought they would leave the town within the next 10 years. In Honiton 80 per cent said they would be leaving and in Ottery St Mary the figure was also 68 per cent.

LDF chairman Mike Allen said: "We have to strike the right balance between the expectations of a government that wants to see a surge in new building to overcome a serious shortfall in homes, especially affordable housing, and our own desire to conserve and enhance this beautiful district of ours while catering for residents of all age-groups."

A spokesman for EDDC added: "Councillors working on a planning blueprint for the future of east Devon discussed the different challenges posed by the need to retain younger residents and cater for a steadily ageing population."

"Members of the LDF Panel pondered how best to provide suitable housing for the district's growing elderly population. They also considered affordable housing and the issues that might persuade young people to stay in east Devon - or influence a decision to leave.

"Among the most common major concerns the young people expressed when approached in youth groups or events held in secondary schools were the ageing population of the area, limited facilities for young people, lack of suitable shops, inadequate public transport options and poor employment prospects."

Parts of town to be 'black-out' revealed

By ANDERS LARSSON
anderson@hindlenews.co.uk

PARTS of Axminster to be affected by a street light black-out have been revealed.

As previously reported, Devon County Council (DCC) has embarked on a cost-cutting programme involving street lights throughout the county.

Work has just started to convert almost 300 street lights in Axminster, and a DCC spokesperson said: "Work is underway to convert around 280 street lights in some residential areas of the town, which will be switched off overnight as DCC's on-going programme to reduce carbon emissions and cut energy consumption continues to roll out across the county."

"Castle Hill, Foxhill, North Street, The Cricketers and Willhayes Park are among the roads which will undergo conversion over the next few weeks."

"The lights in these streets, which were previously on throughout the night, will be switched off at about 1.30am, coming on again at about 6.30am, if it's still dark enough during the summer months, until dawn."

"When the clocks go back, these times will be adjusted accordingly, with the lights coming on again at around 5.30am until dawn."

A and B roads will remain lit all night, including lighting on the A358 along Chard Road, Chard Street, King Edward Road, Musbury Road (between King Edward Road and Lear Lane), Trinity Square and West Street according to DCC.

Lighting will also be on all night on the B3261 along Lyme Road, Lyme Street, Stoney Lane and Trafalgar Way.

However, consideration will be given to dimming lights where possible in the future.

County councillor Andrew Moulding said: "I am pleased that the project to introduce part-night lighting in Axminster has started."

"This initiative will result in a reduction in our carbon footprint as well as our costs, which is of benefit to local council tax payers."

The spokesperson added: "The countywide scheme is expected to have saved more than 300 tonnes of CO2 and around £46,000 in electricity costs over the past year."

"Over the next three years it is estimated that part-night lighting could save Devon 4,000 tonnes of CO2 and reduce its present energy bill by £450,000."

"Lights have already been converted, or are in the process of being converted, in more than 160 communities including Axmouth, Exmouth, Seaton, and Dawlish."

Hotel launches tree programme within grounds

◆ MALCOLM Shennan and one of the labelled trees at Fairwater Head Hotel, Hawkchurch

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@indlenews.co.uk

A HOTEL near Axminster has started a tree identification programme in its gardens after a visiting tree expert took an interest.

Fairwater Head Hotel owners Adam and Carrie Southwell were pleased with their gardens but a dining guest was even more pleased.

Sherborne-based tree expert Malcolm Shennan had been dining at the Hawkchurch hotel when he made his discoveries.

He said: "I had finished dinner and thought I would go for a stroll in the gardens as I had glimpsed some interesting plants earlier.

"I was so excited to see trees such as Cornus Kousa and Cornus Nuttallii.

"Obviously someone with a detailed knowledge of worldwide trees planted these a few years ago.

"They must have had the knowledge to choose trees that would give all-year-round colour and interest."

Ten trees in the hotel grounds have been labelled so far, and more will follow. The hotel gardens are open to any member of the public who wants to have a look.

Call for rural firms to give information

RURAL businesses in Devon and Somerset are encouraged to demonstrate their broadband needs by taking part in a survey.

The call comes from The Country Land and Business Association (CLA), which has welcomed a £30million broadband improvement announcement by the Government.

The £30million deal for Devon and Somerset is part of a £363million Government package to help roll out a superfast broadband network to rural homes and businesses.

CLA believes the promised upgrade will transform the economic prospects for the region, drive inward investment, help businesses grow and offer social and digital inclusion for rural communities.

CLA Southwest broadband spokeswoman Charlotte Sealy said: "Much of the rural Southwest has lacked even adequate — let alone superfast — broadband.

"We are now looking at a level of investment in broadband which will at last offer our rural-based businesses the advantages enjoyed by their urban counterparts.

"The clear message from the Government is that rural connectivity is a major issue — exactly what we have been saying for years."

The Devon and Somerset bid was led by the Heart of the South West Local Enterprise Partnership — an alliance of local authorities and local businesses.

The Heart of the South West LEP is running a survey and the CLA is encouraging farm and other rural businesses and home workers to provide a clear demonstration of demand by taking part in the survey which can be accessed at <http://www.somersetconsults.org.uk/consult/ti/connectivity/respondByQuestionnaire>.

Tesco 'hub' confusion

EDITOR — I am one of the silent majority who cannot wait for the new Tesco store in Seaton to open.

During the past year there have been reports that this store will be a distribution hub — delivering to other stores from Seaton.

This is incorrect.

To be such a place it would have to be:

1. Located near or by the side of a motorway for easy access to the motorway system for delivery to its stores.

2. Be far larger than the building that is currently being built at Seaton.

3. These hubs are purely warehouses for distribution and are normally located on large industrial estates, and would not have a store attached to it.

The store at Seaton will have home delivery, sometimes called e-delivery.

This, I think, is where people are getting confused.

The e-delivery service is similar to the service which the Co-op store currently provides.

However, with Tesco you have to do your Tesco shopping online and they deliver to your door at the time slot you have arranged, in vans similar in size to the Co-op one.

The only large articulated delivery vehicles you will see will be purely delivering to the Seaton store and possibly to the one at Axminster.

Let's stop all this bitterness about the store.

We should be pleased a big company wants to come to Seaton, the Co-op needs some competition, the quality of their goods is not as good as Tesco's and they are not exactly cheap.

YOUR VIEWS & LETTERS

Panel quote is misleading, says disappointed councillor

EDITOR — As a member of EDDC's Local Development Framework Panel I felt compelled to express my disappointment in the misleading set of statements attributed to chairman of the panel, Councillor Mike Allen recently.

During the two meetings, which have so far taken place in the public domain, the panel has been railroaded into making premature decisions about housing numbers.

At the first meeting, myself and councillors Ray Bloxham and Steve Wragg managed to resist this, but at the second meeting, there appeared to be a determination that the panel approved the recommendation for 15,000 homes. It was made clear to us that this was a minimum number. A range of 15-17,000 dwellings was referred to several times.

The lower figure of 12,000 houses calculated by Devon County Council, based on long-term local data, was dismissed because apparently it did not take account of 'policy'. Policy seemed to relate to EDDC having "historically been identified as appropriate for higher growth".

Interestingly, it was reported the morning after the meeting as an EDDC 'spokesman' saying "17,000 dwellings might be appropriate".

This crucial debate, which is central to the entire plan, was rushed through with the chairman interrupting and cutting short my own and other similar-minded panel members in our reasoning for opting for the lower housing numbers.

We were subsequently outvoted by four votes to three.

It is a distortion of reality for Councillor Allen to claim that people who wish to see lower housing figures to be uncaring about the need for houses for less well off and younger people. Logic tells me that the more houses you build for people who want to move here from elsewhere will simply create a bigger affordable housing demand.

If EDDC was really serious about providing affordable housing, it would not continually allow developers to get away with providing less than the required proportion of 40 per cent.

I read with some incredulity Councillor Allen's quote: "We won't be driven by ill-judged and negative views, but by the wishes of the people of East Devon".

The public made their wishes crystal clear on this plan for over-development of our district. If we cannot heed those views in the most central issue — numbers of houses — how can the public have confidence in the democratic process at EDDC? We are representatives of the people. And they deserve better than this.

District Councillor — Ottery St Mary Rural Ward*

Search for family tree

EDITOR — My name is Malcolm Gibbs and I have been researching my family history for many years trying to form a tree for a Gibbs family that has spread far and wide.

My research, if correct, shows that Horatio (Claude) married Gertrude Larcombe in 1936 in Honiton.

They had a daughter, Betty, in 1937 who married Brian Abbott in 1957 — also in Honiton.

Claude's death was registered by Betty Abbott, daughter, living in Seaton.

A bit vague but Betty may have had a son, Phillip, born in 1960 in Honiton.

Phillip in turn may have married Susan Davis in 1985 in Honiton.

I would very much like to contact anyone of this family or anyone who knows their whereabouts.

People can contact me by email at malcolm.gibbs@gmail.com, call me on 07921 041421 or write to me at 23 Seaside Avenue, Minster-on-Sea, Sheerness, Kent ME12 2NA.

Local press plays part in saving cheques

EDITOR — I want to say that in my belief the recent successful campaign to save cheques was due in no small part to the help of local newspapers, such as yours.

The Senior Council for Devon, the countywide voluntary forum for those over 50, joined many other organisations nationally in fighting the plans by the banks and the Payments Council to phase out cheques by 2018.

On June 30th I wrote to all newspapers in Devon making the case for keeping cheques, or at least bringing in an adequate replacement.

Many small businesses rely on this method of payment for services rendered.

It is particularly true for people who are housebound and for those receiving home services, such as paying the milkman, the window cleaner, the gardener and so on.

I am glad to report that you can now boast that your readership includes some influential people in London.

At the end of July I received a letter from Sandra Quinn, the director of Corporate Communications at the Payments Council, in which she noted that she wanted to write to me personally following the recent publication of my letters on cheques in Devon's local press.

She confirmed that on July 12th the Payments Council had announced that cheques would be available as long as customers needed them.

The target of closing the cheque clearing system in 2018 had been cancelled, as it was clear that people relied on cheques and many would be inconvenienced.

The council was also aware that in some situations there was not an obvious alternative to the cheque, and this was causing some concern among a large number of customers.

Ms Quinn added: 'We owe a great deal to organisations like yours, which have played an important role in helping us reach the correct decision on cheques.'

I should like to say in turn that the Senior Council for Devon, and older people generally, owe a great deal to newspapers such as yours in publicising the campaign to save cheques.

Thank you.

Vice-chairman
Senior Council for Devon*

Pulman's View from the churches

With NIGEL SPELLER

RECENTLY mention was made, in this column, of revised Eucharistic Prayers, suitable for use when children are present, receiving General Synod approval.

The Praxis website quoted is not yet ready so, enquiries may be made to 01722 424858.

Praxis publishes regular news in support of liturgical education in the Church of England which is distributed to those enrolled as affiliates.

The 400th anniversary of the King James Bible is still topical and Sir Cliff Richard has thrown his weight behind getting everyone to record their favourite chapter to make up the YouTube Bible. For further information email info@kjbttrust.

There is word this week from our local churches on the coast — at Beer and Seaton. The St Gregory and St Michael's Bereavement Support Group meets on the fourth Thursday of each month at 2pm in St Gregory's Church Hall — the next date is August 24th.

For those interested in contemplative prayer the Julian Meeting — for all denominations or none — is at Westfield, Seaton, on the second Monday monthly at 7.30pm.

On a lighter note St Gregory's Church, Seaton, is having a festival of flowers in church from August 26th to August 28th — the emphasis being on homegrown exhibits, and all in aid of church funds.

Further west along the coast Branscombe Voluntary Controlled Church School reports that from September they will be working in partnership with Broadhembury Primary School to share resources and assist community cohesion. The emphasis is on partnership, not a merger, but a federation.

Branscombe was also the recent venue for the popular Songs of Praise with the Honiton Town Band — due to the wet weather — the big congregation and band were invited into the beach cafe.

The Archbishop of Canterbury and the Archbishop of York expressed sympathy in the House of Lords with those affected by the recent violence in our cities. They paid tribute to police and volunteers, and called for a renewed commitment to the building of strong communities.

Churches outside Devon were at the forefront of efforts to assist those suffering from the recent riots. Practical ways to help have been suggested, and suitable special prayers have been composed and may be seen on the Church of England website at <http://www.churchofengland.org>.

Looking ahead, the week beginning October 16th is to be observed as National Ethical Investment Week to help individuals, families, churches and charities reflect on their values in their investments. Climate change, poverty, green issues are matters for consideration; more information can be found at www.ccla.co.uk.

A FORMER Membury gamekeeper has been rewarded for his dedication to gamekeeping.

Andy Little, of Hereford, used to be based at the Yarty Farm Estate and has clocked up more than 40 years in the industry.

He was presented with a Country Land and Business Association (CLA) Long Service Award to Gamekeepers at the CLA Game Fair held at Blenheim Palace, Oxfordshire.

The Duke of Kent presented Mr Little with his award. In total, seven game and river keepers were presented with a long service award.

After spending 22 years at the Yarty Farm Estate, Mr Little then spent six years at the Tair Estate in Scotland, followed by a period of two years back in Devon at the Clinton Estate. He is now based in Hereford at the How Caple Estate, where he has been for the past 11 years.

Mr Little said: "It's important for all keepers to be recognised for the work we do."

"We're hidden away for most of the time so it's nice to get this award. There's nothing I don't enjoy about being out in the countryside, it's absolutely brilliant. I get paid for my hobby, I feel very lucky."

President of the CLA, William Worsley, added: "All of these keepers have put decades of sterling service into the countryside. They are a credit to their estates and their communities for the role they play in looking after the beautiful countryside of England and Wales."

New town crier is speaker at meeting

AXE Valley Heritage Association will be holding its next meeting on Wednesday, September 21st.

The guest speaker at the event will be David Cramer, the new Seaton town crier.

The meeting will be held at the United Reformed Church Hall on Cross Street at 7.30pm.

Early autumn feel in the air

ALTHOUGH we are still in August and, as I write this fields of corn are still standing ready to be gathered in, there is already an early autumnal feel in the air.

Blackberries are ripening in the hedges and the foliage is assuming the tired, dark green hue which betokens the end of the summer. Already swallows and martins are gathering in swirling flocks, exercising their wings for the great journey that lies ahead or perching on telephone wires to resemble musical scores.

Only this morning I watched as dozens of martins suddenly appeared, swooping and diving over the garden, then to settle for a few agitated moments in the wych elm by the yard gate. This appearance is, I fancy, early but in line with the premature spring and the feeling that the hands of the year's clock have been advanced by a month or so.

Even so, the solitary pair of swallows which eventually chose to use a last year's nest in my barn, in the absence of any mud to build a fresh one, are now feeding their second brood, fledglings which will shortly themselves be airborne. I gather from an ornithologist friend that the spring drought and consequent lack of mud for building nests reduced the swallow breeding output countrywide.

It has, too, been a summer of highs and lows for butterflies. Meadow browns and hedge browns have been in abundance, and the latter insect is still commonplace in the garden and along hedgerows, but I have seen only two tortoiseshells, a handful of red admirals and peacocks and the odd comma. By now the buddleia should be shimmering with butterflies but this year it has been largely ignored.

It was depressing to read that the hedgehog, amongst several other species such as the red squirrel and capercaillie, is in severe decline. Quite apart from the estimated 50,000 tiggy-winkles which are run over on our roads each year, much of their food, such as beetles, slugs and caterpillars has been destroyed by the use of pesticides and, in addition, the burgeoning badger population has also had a major impact on hedgehogs.

I see perhaps one or two of these animals a year and they are becoming an increasingly rare sight. There was a time, not so long ago, when flattened hedgehog corpses were a common enough on the roads, and at least an indication of a healthy population but now, despite the number quoted above, it is rare to find a road casualty.

Devon Wildlife Trust has produced some helpful information to try and assist hedgehogs survival, particularly in semi-urban situations. Make sure, they suggest, that 'hogs have access to your garden by providing small gaps at the base of solid fences and walls; offer an escape route from ponds as the animals frequently drown because of steep and slippery slopes, using chicken wire or a pile of stones. Also check bonfire sites as a pile of rubbish, ready for burning, may seem to a hedgehog an ideal nesting site and, finally, allow a small section of your garden to go wild with long grass, log piles and areas where the animal can forage for food. Finally, if you put out food for your local hedgehogs make sure it is dog or cat food and not bread and milk.

Following the devastating fire at Upton Heath on June 9th, the Urban Heaths Partnership is calling on local residents to help prevent a similar event occurring on the heathland sites across Poole and Bournemouth. Already two roadshows have taken place at Kinson Common and Turbury Common and a third is planned for Redhill Common on Saturday, September 3rd from 10am to 1pm.

If you feel you can offer any help, in terms of providing instant information if you see any sign of arson or anti-social behaviour on these heaths then you can report it on the anonymous crimestoppers helpline 0800 555 111.

Finding space for mass entries at flower show

By ANDERS LARSSON

anders@tindlenews.co.uk

YARCOMBE Flower Show committee members had to find enough space to accommodate no fewer than 612 entries from 101 exhibitors at this year's recent showpiece.

Show secretary Veronica Wadey said: "The Jubilee Hall unfortunately doesn't have elastic walls.

"The children put great effort into their section providing us with 110 exhibits.

"As in previous years, I wondered whether we would have enough entries as most comments were pessimistic about the flowers and vegetables available due to adverse growing conditions.

"I endeavoured to provide encouragement in the form of 'everyone will be in the same boat so put in your entries anyway'.

"This course of action must have paid off as once again the entry forms came tumbling in.

"On behalf of the committee, I would like to thank the judges for giving up their time on a Saturday morning to come and judge your exhibits.

"Thank you also to all who assisted with the preparation of the hall and clearing away.

"Finally and most importantly, to you the exhibitors, who always provide Yarcombe with a wonderful show year after year, thank you."

Tree plea for project help

SEATON and District Lions Club is urging people to get involved with its latest environmental project.

The Plant a Million Trees Campaign has been launched by the Forestry Commission who have grants ranging from £500 to £25,000 available for community groups who want to plant trees in their neighbourhood.

Seaton and District Lions is asking anyone who would like to see some trees planted in an area of Seaton to get in touch. Funding applications have to be in by Monday, September 5th.

For more information call George Mabon on 01297 21572.

Students give time for song

PUPILS from Shute Community Primary School gave up a morning of their holidays to sing on Seaton Esplanade to raise funds for Seaton Devon Air Ambulance Week.

They travelled to the seaside on Sunday, August 7th to entertain a crowd of locals and holidaymakers.

The children, led by musical duo Nick and Sarah Ryan, gave a concert despite gales that threatened to rip the roof off their stage.

Their performance was part of Seaton Devon Air Ambulance Week.

COMPETITION

Readers' chance to win event tickets

CREATIVE Stitches and Hobbycrafts is returning to Exeter Westpoint and Pulman's View has teamed up to offer 10 lucky readers a pair of tickets each.

It will be wowing visitors with some of the sumptuous costumes from the hit ITV series, Downton Abbey, from September 22nd until September 25th.

Downton Abbey captured the hearts of the country last year with some of the finest examples of Edwardian costume splendour. Featuring a capsule collection of some of the most iconic outfits from the series, each outfit shows the exquisite needlework and craftsmanship that went into the designs.

The new Quilters Guild of the British Isles collection, The Romance of Words will be on display, helping to celebrate the 200th anniversary of Austen's Sense and Sensibility.

Poetry in Stitches will continue the collaboration of words and craft with the last round of this ever-popular project from the National Needlework Archive.

If you're a fan of the make do and mend trend then don't miss the brand new feature, the drop in sewing cafe which will be offering visitors the chance to use a sewing machine by the hour.

◆ A CRAFT demonstration at last year's event

Make the most of sewing expert Thelma Judge who will be on hand to answer any of your questions and offer advice. Visit The History of Lace-Making display which will show why lace is often described as an ornament in itself and evoke memories from your childhood with the Glimpses of Childhood display.

With more than 150 exhibitors on hand to offer you the best advice and latest products, free workshops and demonstrations and much more, you will leave the show racing home to try your hand at a new craft.

To be in with a chance of winning send your name, address and telephone number to Pulman's View, Tindle House, South Street, Axminster, Devon EX13 5AD by 4pm Friday, September 2nd 2011. The editor's decision is final.

OUT & ABOUT

● MR Stink is a musical adaptation of the comedy star's award-winning children's novel. The Little Britain and Come Fly with Me star, David Walliams, has written the smelliest book of all time breaking, while the stage show breaks new ground by being the first ever interactive scratch 'n' sniff family show.

Each audience member will be given a free scratch 'n' sniff booklet bringing Mr Stink pongingly to life.

Chloe doesn't like school very much. She isn't as cool as the other kids, no iPhone, no DS and no friends. Then she meets Mr Stink – the local tramp.

Yes, he smells a bit but he's the only person who's ever been nice to her, including her mother who wants to be the local MP and is trying to rid the streets of its homeless.

About to lose her only friend, Chloe finds Mr Stink a secret hiding place – but is there more to him than meets the nose?

It has been adapted and directed by Matthew White with music composed by Matt Brind.

Mr Stink runs from Tuesday, September 20th to Sunday, September 25th.

Tickets are now on sale and are available by calling the box office on 01392 493493, or visit www.exeternorthcott.co.uk.

● DUE to popular demand, comic and musician Bill Bailey has added a second Plymouth date to his live show Dandelion Mind at Plymouth Pavilions on Monday, November 7th as well as Sunday, November 6th.

Tickets are on sale now and cost £29.50. To book contact the box office on 0845 146 1460.

● THE United Reformed Church Hall in Cross Street, Seaton, will be the venue for a talk by Ben Joslin on Wednesday, October 12th.

Mr Joslin will talk about Nelson's Signal System starting at 7.30pm.

Axe Valley Heritage Association is hosting the talk and the group says everyone is welcome to attend.

Nancy's art is on show now at mill

WE Can Rebuild Her, an exhibition of art by Nancy Clemance, is now on show at the David West Gallery, Town Mill, Lyme Regis, until September 25th.

The exhibition is focused on bricolage, the art of making something out of what exists.

The installations, soundscape and photographic works parallel the artist's ongoing quest to renovate an excavated shepherd's hut, and her own journey through recent scoriating personal life losses. It is a true story of everyday life.

Nancy Clemance has also been using her work for We Can Rebuild Her as the basis for a local schools project, which will inspire pupils to learn about Dorset's hut heritage and then produce their own creative responses.

Songs, sculpture, poems, films and graphics may all be included at the Young Hutliving exhibition in West Bay, Bridport 2012.

Nancy moved from Cambridge to Dorset in August 2009.

Since moving Nancy has made site-specific work in the woods for the The Brewhouse, Taunton, worked on ReCollection for Kettle's Yard, curated the Hayward Touring Exhibition of Walker Evans: Photographs 1935-1936 at Axen Farm, formed Burr Projects Community Interest Company, curated Spirit publication and street photography event and freelanced as a curator.

Most recently she has mentored Alastair Barford, a very exciting local painter.

She is currently developing her practice and curating.

Programme of events finalised

AS Bank Holiday Monday draws closer the final preparations are being made to the annual Hawkchurch Village Fete weekend.

The highlight of the village calendar, this year's fete promises to be a great day out for all the family.

With a jam-packed programme of events taking place not only on fete day itself, but throughout the week, the fete week kicks-off on Sunday, August 21st with a car treasure hunt.

There are family events all week culminating in the highlight of the week on bank holiday Monday, August 29th.

Kicking off events at 2pm will be a parade of vintage tractors.

Then entertainment will be provided throughout the afternoon in the main ring with performances from the Karizma Majorettes, Honiton Band, Honeysuckle Dog Agility team and children's entertainment from Uncle Bobby.

As well as the main ring entertainment there will be a whole host of stalls, games and side shows including craft market, bouncy castle, coconut shy, crazy golf, skittles, Cotley Hounds, Lural Farm Alpacas, West Country Sled Dogs and much more.

Cream teas, cakes, ice creams and licensed bar will be available all afternoon as well as pizzas and a barbecue.

Sell-out event goes well for society

REVIEW

FOR the second year running, members of Honiton's own pantomime society treated the town to two evenings of superb variety entertainment.

As a fundraising event the idea was to try and put some much-needed cash back into the coffers after last season's lavish production of King Arthur.

The programme included well-known songs with a seaside flavour as well as songs with audience participation, various dance routines and several extremely funny comedy sketches.

There was a surprise visit from the silent order of Luppitt Monks who performed Handle's Messiah with signs — absolutely brilliant.

There was also panto versions of Blind Date, The Sound of Music and Les Miserables to the delight of the audience.

The show was once again compared by the grand dame of panto, Max Pipe.

The two producers were Jerry Holt and Rob Grove.

The auditorium at Honiton Community College was beautifully laid out with tables so that families and groups could informally sit together.

Patrons brought their own drinks for the evening and were served at the interval with a delicious ploughman's supper.

With the event selling out very quickly for both evenings, it would appear that this type of variety entertainment could be a regular welcome addition to the town's programme of summer events.

◆ HARRISON Ford as Woodrow Dolarhyde and Daniel Craig as Jake Lonergan
COWBOYS AND ALIENS (12A)

BASED on the graphic novel by Scott Mitchell Rosenberg, Cowboys and Aliens is a rootin' tootin' action adventure that melds the western and science fiction genres with a blitzkrieg of digital effects.

It's a curious juxtaposition — pistols and laser guns — and certain elements of Jon Favreau's entertaining film don't gel.

While Harrison Ford possesses the weariness of a man who could conceivably have kicked up his spurs in 1870s New Mexico, co-star Daniel Craig swaggers around in figure-hugging leather chaps and a shirt unbuttoned to the navel like James Bond at a fancy dress party.

We're not remotely surprised that he opens the film by disabling three bandits on horseback. Nor do we bat an eyelid when his character out-canthers an alien spaceship along a canyon ridge and leaps from the turbo-charged nag onto the otherworldly craft. The invaders do not stand a chance.

Preposterousness aside, Cowboys and Aliens gallops along at a fair lick and director Favreau (Iron Man) orchestrates the set pieces with aplomb.

Jake Lonergan (Craig) wakes in the desert with a gunshot wound, a large metal bracelet on his wrist and no memory of who he is or how he came to be in the dirt.

He struts into town and is unmasked as a killer with a sizeable bounty on his head.

Arrested by the sheriff and bound for prison alongside Percy Dolarhyde (Paul Dano), Jake makes his escape from the prison coach during a devastating attack by extraterrestrial craft. Percy is abducted and the boy's powerful father, Woodrow (Harrison Ford), vows to rescue his son and he press gangs Jake into accompanying his posse on the perilous mission.

Beautiful cowgirl Ella Swenson (Olivia Wilde), publican Doc and a fatherless boy called Emmett join the hunt for the aliens.

Cowboys and Aliens dodges the bullet of the 3D format and concentrates on old-fashioned action with 21st-century visual trickery.

The front door leads to the open plan kitchen and living area with laminate board flooring. The kitchen has fitted contemporary beech fronted wall and base units with inset sink / drainer, free-standing under counter fridge and slot-in style electric cooker. Space and plumbing is provided for a washing machine.

The double size bedroom has windows to the rear and side aspects. The shower room has a corner shower cubicle with electric shower unit. The low level WC has a concealed cistern with push button flush. The raised circular wash hand basin is set atop a contemporary vanity unit. Outside the communal hallway has access to the apartment's under stair storage cupboard.

AXE VALE PONY CLUB MINI ONE-DAY EVENT

By KELLY BAKER

pulmans@indienews.co.uk

AXE Vale Pony Club held its first annual Mini One-day Event on Saturday, August 13th at Higher Bruckland Farm, Musbury, which organisers hailed a huge success.

Competitors came from as far away as Dawlish to take part in dressage, show jumping and cross country, just as they would at a larger event.

Classes ranged from 1ft to 2ft with competitors as young as five taking part. The event was a huge success and children and ponies alike had a fabulous day.

Results — Class 1A, 8 years and under, lead rein: 1st Ruby Russo – Ping Pong; 2nd Edward Field – Abbie; 3rd Juliette Bostock – Harry; 4th Christopher Brown – Piggy.

Class 1B, 8 years and under, assisted: 1st Phillipa Burt – Wizzy; 2nd William Field – Ellie.

Class 2A, 10 years and under, lead or assisted: 1st Clare Daubney – Sophie; 2nd Katie Laity – Lemons Hill Dusk.

Class 2B, 10 years and under, unassisted: 1st Jasmin Wellman – Kizzy Whizz; 2nd Charlotte Yorke – Bella; 3rd Charlotte Hosking – Catkin; 4th Maisie Russo – George.

Class 3, 12 years and under: 1st Henrietta Ewell – Blue; 2nd Kim Croton – Iris; 3rd George Russo – Phoenix; 4th Erin Blank – Lily; 5th Zoe Ellis – Spike; 6th Henrietta Ewell – Blaze.

Specials awarded to: Hannah Hosking, Olivia Morgan, Polly White, Ella Burdette, Daniel Adams and Hannah-May Westdorp.

Class 4, open to any age: 1st Leanne Bryant – Wiscombe Pixie; 2nd Lucy Gay – Willow.

Specials awarded to: Victoria Ley, Angela Tomlin and Georgina Ewell.

FENITON BOWLING CLUB

Ladies pip Sidmouth

THE ladies' team enjoyed more success in another close match away at Sidmouth, winning by 45-42.

The winning rinks were Glynda Blackmore, Glensys North and Judy Smith 17-13 and Margaret Imms, Lyn Eveleigh and Ruby Veitch 15-12.

In the men's over 60's triple league, the A team kept their slim hopes of promotion alive with a 35-14 win over St Thomas, gaining seven valuable points.

The winning rink were Stan Nevill, Andrew Evans and Richard North 21-14. The B team were at local rivals Ottery St Mary and lost by 29-41, which means they remain too close to the relegation positions for comfort.

The mixed team enjoyed a resounding victory against Chagford, winning by 95-48. The winning rinks were Norma Cox, Don Conbeer and Richard North 36-7, Frank Jones, Lynda Dommett and Roger Smith 24-11 and Frank Brooks, George Skinner and Jo O'Sullivan 17-12.

However, they lost a close and enjoyable evening match away at Tiverton West End by 83-93. The winning rinks were John Dibble, Judy Smith, Graham Phillips and Jim Skinner 17-14, Di Phillips, Eddie Cox, Eileen Tuck and Andrew Evans 18-15 and Frank Jones, Bonnie Halse, John Rolph and Les Ley 17-16.

ON Tuesday, August 16th the visitors were Honiton BC to play a four-rink mixed friendly.

Final score was 80-66 to the home team. B Vickers, J Marks, A Day and K Wakelin won 27-11, T Bird, J Tucker, K Warren and S Jeffery won 22-16.

J Vickers, J Rolph, M Davenport and N Denslow won 19-17.

B Howard, D Eldridge, P Compton and M Toms lost 12-22.

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS

◆ AS part of Dalwood Fair Week the Dalwood 10K Run was held on Wednesday evening, starting and finishing in the centre of the village. The run took in fields, tracks and roads around Dalwood. The runners are pictured as they race away at the start

First lady Lin is a star

AXE Valley Runners (AVR) triumphed in the Dalwood Fayre 10K through Lin Lascelles, who was the first lady over the line — and 10th overall — in 46.22.

The race was won in fine style by Daryl Milford in 39.11.

Martin Lascelles was the first AVR home, just missing third spot by two seconds in 42.09.

Ian Apps also had a fine run, finishing 13th in 46.58, and Amy Greenhalgh was second lady and 17th overall in 47.46.

Ironman Paul Johns was next, finishing 24th in 50.20, just beating Mark Hilder, who was 26th in 51.09, followed by Robin Carter, 27th, in 51:50.

It was just great to see Eleanor Wood back on the racing circuit after she underwent surgery a few weeks ago.

She was absolutely delighted to finish seventh lady, 30th overall, in 54.25. Pete Hughes was pleased to finish 39th in 58.05. Jacqui Stokes, in her first run for AVR, finished 46th in 1:01.10.

Kelly Dack is now returning to fine form and was 57th in 1:04.19.

Janette Mack was another first-timer and was delighted to finish in 1:08.47. Arguably, Gill Day had the best result of the day as she completed in 1:11.05, but beat her personal best by over 12 minutes.

Diane Newton completed in 1:16.29 and Marilyn Hughes took 1:19.02, beating last year's time by three minutes. All the runners really enjoyed the challenge set by Derek Gould and his team and look forward to the much tougher Dalwood Three Hills challenge next year.

Geoff Woodward and Steve Reynolds decided once again to tackle the Dorset Duddle.

This run starts at the clock on Weymouth seafront and finishes 31 miles later in Swanage.

The run follows the coast path over some serious hills, including the Purbecks.

Steve was doing this for the third time and trying to make up for a couple of disasters, having blown up the first time and retiring after more than eight hours at Lulworth Cove last year.

Both ran together until Geoff made the most of Steve's hatred of steps and opened up a healthy lead.

Andy Bowman decided to meet up with the lads at Kimmerage and joined in with Geoff.

While going down a stepped section, Andy put his foot in a pothole and twisted his ankle.

Geoff started to tire in the last six miles and Steve caught him at the last check point.

Both ran together until Steve put in a spurt and finished in six hours and 44 minutes in 23rd place, a course personal best of two hours.

Geoff was just one minute behind in 24th place.

Both would like to thank Andy for his support and being a good sport.

SEATON BOWLS CLUB

SEATON Bowls Club beat Culmpton in the Two Counties League by 99 shots to 76 on August 14th, the top rink coming from Ivor Steer, Mike Follenfant, Alan Wood and Phil Crichard.

The five-rink match against Tiverton, played on August 15th, was reduced to 13 ends because of rain. Seaton won by 52 shots to 49.

Top rink were Lilian Hurley-Smith, Keith Harris, Linda Stone and Jeremy Allison.

The annual ladies Perham Trophy was played on August 16th with teams from Feniton, Madeira, Chardstock, Budleigh Salterton, Sidmouth and Lyme Regis playing against teams from Seaton.

The winners were Maria Johnson, Alice Carter, Sheila Pike and Barbara Harden from Seaton, with the runners-up also a Seaton team.

This event is generously sponsored by the Perham family.

In the men's over-sixties triples league games on August 17th, the A team beat Culm Vale B by 51 shots to 21.

Top triple were Alan Wood, Roy Carnell and Ron Rowley. The B team beat St. Thomas C by 50 shots to 15, with the top triple from Richard Whitworth, Doug Hislop and Jeremy Allison.

The five-rink mixed match against Heavitree on August 18th ended in a draw — 81 shots each.

The top rink were Betty Steer, Sheila Pike, Bob Scull and Ivor Steer.

The men's B team, in the over sixties triples league, beat Budleigh Salterton C on August 19th by 63 shots to 24.

Top triple were Ken Russell, George Mabon and Don Yaxley.

Seaton entertained Hedge End tourists on August 21st with a six mixed rink match, which the tourists won by 118 shots to 109. Top Seaton rink were Ann Wright, Terry Hurley-Smith, Ken Shean and Joan Miles.

HONITON RUNNING CLUB

THE recent Exeter 10k organised by Ironbridge Runners was a happy stomping ground for one member of Honiton Running Club.

Honiton runner Julie Payne finished 71st out of 215 runners and achieved a personal best time of 43.38.

Fresh from a holiday in Turkey, Stephen Boyes ran the Salisbury 5, 4, 3, 2, 1, Trail Marathon last week. The race is named after the five rivers, four hills, three large country estates, two castles and one cathedral that are included on the course.

Steve found the going quite hot but still managed to finish the race in less than four hours. He finished with a time of three hours 58mins and 50 seconds. Money raised from the race is donated to the Salisbury Fire Fighters' Charity.

The third running of the Dalwood Fayre 10k multi-terrain race was held on Wednesday, August 17th.

Fourteen members of Honiton Running Club took part in the Dalwood 10k with Kevin Hawker finishing second overall in a time of 41:18. Bruce Strawbridge was the next Honiton runner home, finishing in 11th place with a time of 46:41.

A spokesman for Honiton Running Club said: "Thanks to the Dalwood Run Committee for great organisation and for providing cheerful marshals. It's always great to have local support."

"Thanks also to the landowners who allowed runners to trample their fields."

CHARD AND DISTRICT SWIMMING CLUB

Caring swimmers go great lengths for Sam

MEMBERS of Chard and District Swimming Club spent most of Sunday doing length after length in Flamingo Pool, Axminster.

As previously reported, the fundraiser was staged in aid of fellow member Sam Nunn, who has been diagnosed with a rare cancer called neuroblastoma.

The 18-year-old has been offered pioneering treatment in Germany, so his friends and family are staging various fundraisers in Somerset, Devon and Dorset to help raise the £70,000 required.

Swimming club member Lucy Down was one of those who took part in the sponsored swim.

She said: "We had a very successful day with the personal cause pushing each swimmer really hard."

"In the end we managed an amazing 1500 lengths."

"We have raised approximately £800 and we are still hoping to get more.

"We couldn't have done it without the kind support of the Flamingo Pool and its staff."

"We would also like to thank Hiho Silver Jewellery and all our other sponsors."

Donations can be made online at <http://uk.virginmoneygiving.com/team/SponsoredSwim> or by dropping an envelope into the Flamingo Pool, marked "For the attention on Lucy Down".

In addition to Lucy, the swimmers who took part were: Dan Walker, Beckie and James Rutherford, Jack Bradford, Jack Fish, Catherine Ryder, Lydia Riches, Jess Harrington, Saskia Osborne, Laura Coombes, Libby and Tessa Down, Max and Wilf Gosden, Jake Hallam, Jodie Hake, Abi and Leo Bonning, Jessica Patch, Michael Moulding, Zoe Spurway, Jonny Ebdon and Amy Rodger.

AXE VALLEY BOULES LEAGUE

Comeback by Gerrard

Triples Cup Qualifying Night

A SERIES of close matches at the Golden Hind, Musbury, eventually saw Gerrard Arms B triumph over the Lamb Visitors by the narrowest of margins, coming back from 8-5 down to win 9-8.

Earlier, there were encouraging wins for the Lamb High Flyers and Lamb Visitors over higher division opposition.

R1: Lamb High Flyers 9 Kings Jesters 7; Gerrard Arms B 9 Royal Clarence A 7.

R2: Lamb Visitors 9 Kings Arms A 7; Gerrard Arms B 9 Lamb High Flyers 6.

QF: Gerrard Arms B 9 Lamb Visitors 8.

At Beer Club

After seeing off their lower division opponents, Whitford Warriors and Axe Cliff A played out the final match, with the Warriors coming back from a long way behind to pip the golf club side 9-8.

R1: New Inn Flyers 9 Seaton Town FC B 4; Axe Cliff A 9 Kingfisher Rebels 4.

R2: Axe Cliff A 9 New Inn Flyers 7; Whitford Warriors 9 Seaton Town FC A 1.

QF: Whitford Warriors 9 Axe Cliff A 8.

At The Gerrard Arms, Colyton:

The Golden Wonders had the most unenviable task of the night, the only Division 3 side among five top-flight teams. A fine victory in the first round found them up against the Ship Castaways in Round Two, whom they led 6-0 before succumbing to the eventual winners.

R1: Colyton FC 9 Kingfisher A 4; Ship Castaways 9 Harbour A 7; Golden Wonders 9 Lamb (mutton) 4.

R2: Beer Club 9 Colyton FC 5; Ship Castaways 9 Golden Wonders 6.

QF: Ship Castaways 9 Beer Club 0.

At The Kingfisher, Colyton:

Defending champions Golden Hind B once again qualified for finals night with three relatively easy victories, although Kings & Queens didn't have the best of luck in the final match which made the score look a bit more comfortable than it was.

R1: Kings & Queens 9 Red Balls 1; Royal Clarence B 9 Harbour Fourplay 7; Golden Hind B 9 Kings Cavaliers 1.

R2: Kings & Queens 9 Royal Clarence B 5; Golden Hind B 9 Harbour Sea 2.

QF: Golden Hind B 9 Kings & Queens 2.

Many thanks to all those who refereed and kept score at the venues.

Semi-final draw (at The Lamb, Axminster, Tuesday, September 13th): Gerrard Arms v Whitford Warriors; Ship Castaways v Golden Hind B.

Whitbread Cup Semi-Final

The first semi-final of the Whitbread Cup saw league leaders Golden Hind B come from 2-1 down to defeat Whitford Warriors 4-2 at the Kingfisher in a series of enjoyable games.

The second semi-final between Colyton FC and the Lamb (mutton) will be played at the start of September, with the final at Seaton Town FC on Tuesday September 20th.

HONITON GOLF CLUB

Ladies sweep board in battle of the sexes

LAST Saturday saw the annual Honiton Challenge Competition with club captain Tim Avery's men's section playing Sue Richie's ladies, Bill Nicholl's seniors and Oliver Cave's juniors.

The ladies emerged victorious sweeping the board with 37 points. And the delight on the faces of the ladies' team assured the rest of the club that they will never hear the last of it.

Honiton also hosted the South West Girls Inter Counties Matchplay Competition with the counties' best girl players coming from Devon, Gloucester, Wiltshire, Dorset, Somerset and Cornwall.

The matches were played head-to-head over three days, leaving Gloucestershire as the South West Inter County winners for 2011, having won their matches against Dorset, Somerset, Cornwall and Wiltshire, but recording their only defeat against Devon.

The standard of golf was high, with many birdies and eagles recorded. The Devon team of Hannah Armstrong (captain), Molly Haslam, Kerry Hurd, Stacey Ford, Beth Yeoman, Laura Tregelles, Emily Davies and Amie Walker played well and scored one-and-a-half points to finish joint fifth. Everyone who took part commented on the spirit in which the event was played and the friendly atmosphere at Honiton.

The club made everyone welcome and the catering was outstanding.

Many thanks also go to the volunteers who helped with ball-spotting, refereeing, and starting, and to the spectators who came to support the Devon team.

◆ LADIES' captain Sue Richie, centre, with the all-conquering ladies' team

Sunday morning's stableford seemed to suit the Division 2 players down to the ground. Mike Kent drove first off the tee and powered around the clear course to finish with a blistering 43 points.

Ordinarily, Buzz Harris and Steve Branch could have expected better reward for their 40 and 39 points respectively, but had to settle for second and third.

Division 1 was a closer fought affair, with Paul Blackmore edging ahead with 37 points, leaving Chris Earle (35 points) and Derek Richards (34) to rue those few missed putts.

The past week also saw the final of the President's Trophy Knockout, played between Andrea and Stan Squire and Paul Ritchie and Barbara Mullett.

Fortunately, the morning rain cleared to enable the finalists to go out in the afternoon in reasonable weather. Andrea and Stan, last year's winners, triumphed again.

Meanwhile, the ladies were able to relax and enjoy playing the American Foursomes Competition in the knowledge that no handicap changes would occur.

The winning pair, with an excellent score of 39 points were Olive Pope and Tricia Swindell.

In second place were lady captain Sue Ritchie and Jan Dickinson with 36 points. Third place went to Jane Watts and Olwen Eaton, with 35 points.

AXE CLIFF GOLF CLUB

You draw some, you draw some

THE Seniors have recently played three inter-club matches, one away and two at Axe Cliff, and by some quirk all three ended in 3-3 draws.

The first match was at home against Hele Pare, where the odds were in favour of the visitors until the final match was won by the home side to force the draw. Winning pairings for Axe Cliff included Peter Knighting and Stuart Mackie, Mick Tomes and Bob Flay and John Ashbolt and Malcolm Reynolds.

Next came Windwhistle away, where the home team failed to avenge the heavy defeat inflicted upon them at Axe Cliff in April with the match ending all square.

Wins from Axe Cliff came from Rob Heard and Morrison Brown and Mick Tomes and Bob Flay, while half points were won by Rob Grove and Bryan Dale and Peter Knighting and Tony Strong.

Finally came the match at home against Bridport, where the draw gave Bridport the edge over the season by six and a half to five and a half.

Wins for Axe Cliff came from Peter Knighting and Jack Bannister, Peter Motson and Mike Jamieson and Rob Grove and Martin Wallbank.

Meanwhile, a dull damp Wednesday saw the ladies of Axe Cliff competing for the Scratch and Handicap Cups.

The winner of the Scratch Cup was Glenda Board (18) with a gross 87 resulting in a net score of 69, four strokes under the course par of 73. Liz Wheeldon (25) won the Handicap Cup with a gross 97, net 72.

Last Sunday the Main Club competed for the Centenary Cup. The winner was Andrew Hellier (8) with net 62 beating Chris Glover (12) who had a nett 64.

EAST DEVON SUPER LEAGUE - DARTS

The team in a league of their own?

THE oddly named Axminster darts side East Devon Super League travelled to the Rose and Crown, Sandford, for their second game in their near-namesake Devon Dart Super League last Saturday.

Having lost narrowly in the last game, the Axminster side were looking for a good start to the match. Mark Doherty was first out, winning a closely fought game 3-2.

Mark Bradley was next up, but he could not keep the momentum going for the away side. He fought hard but lost his game 3-2.

Two more losses followed for the away side, with Ben Coath and Merv Wackley losing their games 3-0 and leaving the match score at 3-1.

Bert Trivett, once again playing in the fifth match, produced a fine display to win his match 3-1.

Ron Smith was next up and fought back from being 2-0 down to lose 3-2.

With the game now standing 4-2, Ed Coutts lost 3-1 to give the Rose and Crown the five points they needed for a win.

But the away side would not let their heads drop, and won their last two matches.

Rory Tucker won his game 3-2 and Dan Shakespeare his 3-1, giving the away team vital points.

So with another 5-4 loss, on the journey home the Axminster team members were left to contemplate if only that double eight had gone in.

The team would like to thank their sponsors Marecabo Ltd, Axminster Summer and Winter Darts League, Vaults Bar, To and Fro, Glasstech Southwest, as well as their host for the evening, the Rose & Crown Sandford.

MIXED SPORT

LYME REGIS GOLF CLUB

George, 14, in fine form

AFTER overnight rain which made the fairways slightly less firm and slowed the greens significantly, the Lyme course was in excellent condition for the annual mixed Greensome open event on Saturday August 13th.

This is not everyone's favourite format because many regard it as half a round of golf, with alternate shots being taken by each of the team members after the tee shot.

The event was well supported with participants coming from all over UK. With a fresh south-westerly wind blowing, temperatures were a little on the cool side but scoring was good.

The eventual winners with an excellent 42 points were A Vickery and S Bristow, from Enmore Golf Club, closely followed by D Dowell and R Dowell, from Windwhistle, with 40 points.

Third place was taken by Graham Taylor and Jan Kelly with 39 points. The best placed Lyme team, on countback, were Mike and Cindy Mudford with 38 points.

On Monday, August 15th a team of Lyme junior golfers travelled the short distance to take part in the Bridport Junior Open event.

With weather conditions good, albeit a little chilly in a fresh south westerly wind, the team performed exceptionally well.

Indeed, 14-year-old Colyton schoolboy George Seed continued his exceptional form of the current season to record a gross 72 (net 66) to win the scratch event in convincing fashion.

As a result, George's handicap has been reduced to 5. David Lyon also posted an impressive score with a gross 76 (net 67) but was edged out of the prizes.

Congratulations also go to George and David who were winner and runner-up respectively in the under -14 category in the Dorset County Boys Age Group Championships held recently at the club.

George (5 handicap) and David (8) are both products of the junior coaching programme and regularly take part in inter county matches.

In the week previous to this Lyme entered two teams in the Colin Chataway trophy event at Wareham Golf Club.

This event saw both George and David as lynch-pins for team one to achieve third place in a highly competitive event.

George Yorke (8) also played exceptional well to record a very useful 37 points.

The second team achieved a very creditable fourth place with S Wight the best scorer with an impressive 42 points.

A midweek stableford saw Ray Dobson record a creditable 37 points to achieve victory over club scratch handicapped player Scott Love with 35 points.

AXMINSTER TOWN CRICKET CLUB

AXMINSTER travelled to bottom side Chagford last Saturday with high hopes of picking up maximum points, and although that did not happen they did somehow win the game by eight runs.

Paul Miller won the toss and elected to bat and after an opening partnership of 35, found the team struggling to put a total together against the Chagford attack.

Opener David Murnane made 29 but there were meagre portions from his colleagues and they ended on 114-9.

Chagford must have considered they were in a good position until they found themselves struggling against Joel Seward (4-15) and Mark Richards (2-32), and after 24 overs were six wickets down for 55.

A stand of 50 between Lord and Christopher put them in sight of victory but in his third over, and the last of the day, Matt Pile dismissed J Christopher.

Incoming batsman B Christopher was then run out and Pile had Sizmer caught by Joel Seward to end the innings. Axminster thus winning by eight runs with 3 balls left.

2nd XI v Cornwood (Cloakham)

Peter Kiy was fortunate against a side from Cornwood struggling to get a side together. Gary Lacombe (58) and Robbie Prior (56) set things up with an opening partnership of 116.

Additional runs from Saun Perry (28), Steve Reed (19) and Nick Taylor (19 not out) took the total to a useful 210 in the allotted 38 overs.

Max Felgate (2-13) and Nick Taylor (3-11) never allowed Cornwood to get away but with the visitors having only 10 players, no-one seemed able take the last wicket to give the side another 20 points.

3rd XI v North Devon (Cloakham)

The game was all over in just 27 overs with Axminster electing to bat first only to find themselves bundled out for 32. Highest score came from Adam Whitehouse with seven. Adam then took the only wicket to fall as North Devon romped home in less than ten overs.

DEVON & EXETER LEAGUE

NEW boys Barnstaple Town Reserves and Morchard Bishop both made sensational starts to life back in the Premier Division.

Barnstaple crushed last season's runners-up Seaton Town 5-1, while Morchard saw off Beer Albion 3-1.

At Mill Road, Barum's new manager Terry Chapple was beaming with delight at the football his team played which led to a Craig Sandle hat-trick, an Adam Baxter strike and an own goal.

Ben Ede replied for Seaton but their manager Josh Stunell reckoned it was their worst performance for many a day.

Morchard enjoyed an opening victory against a battling Albion and scored through Matt Buckingham, Jack Woodman and former Crediton manager Dean Pidgeon.

James Melville was responsible for the Fishermen's reply.

Callum Somers scored twice as Colyton shaded Topsham Town Reserves 3-2. Ian Curran and Kevin Webb scored the home goals.

Newton St Cyres began their season in Division Four with a startling 5-0 win at Seaton Town Reserves. Adam Kefford and Matt Crook both scored twice.

OTTERY ON BRINK OF PROMOTION AFTER WIN

By KEVIN FAHEY

sport.pulmans@tindlenews.co.uk

A STUNNING victory by Ottery St Mary has left them tantalisingly close to winning promotion from the D Division.

Ottery brushed aside leaders Ippelen, who had previously lost only once this season, by seven wickets after opening bowlers Will Harrison (5-34) and Rob Johns (4-17) ripped through their batting to leave them 76 all out.

Ottery's batsmen knocked off those runs for the loss of just three wickets, with Will Mumford top scorer on 28 and Rob Cross hitting 27 to earn skipper Jody Clements's side 119 points and leave them clear favourites to secure the second promotion place with just two games remaining.

"We have a gap of 14 points over Feniton with a maximum of 40 points to play for so if we can do the job next week at home to Whimble before the final game away to Whitchurch then we will almost be there," said Clements.

"We certainly needed that win on Saturday and it stopped the rot after four games without a win having suffered two defeats and two losing draws.

"We needed something to get us going again and that win came from nowhere really. Ippelen put out their strongest side so it wasn't that they were under-strength.

"But we played really well and both Will and Rob were superb and their batsmen just couldn't play them."

It could have been even worse for the leaders because at one stage they were 43-9 and only a dropped catch gave them the opportunity to add some late runs. But it wasn't enough as Ottery rose to the challenge, which was just as well as news of another Feniton victory trickled through.

"I'm sure Feniton were banking on us slipping up but they are a good team and will keep pushing us all the way I'm sure," added Clements. "But the win over Ippelen has taken some of the pressure of us."

Feniton did their bit to keep alive the promotion contest by thumping Bridestow by nine wickets. Batting first Bridestow were skittled out for 104 with Norm Bedford claiming 4-32.

Bedford then scored an unbeaten half century with Martin Swannell not out on 48 to take Feniton to 105-1 and a maximum of 20 points.

The race for promotion in the E Division is also going down to the wire with five clubs still in with a chance of going up. Uplyme & Lyme Regis stayed in the hunt after thrashing Tiverton by 183 runs to score 20 points.

Skipper Ashley Caddy led by example with a superb unbeaten 100 as Uplyme piled on the runs to reach 249-7. Ace bowler Steve Batey then virtually polished off the Tiverton batsmen single-handed as he ended with superb figures of 6-20.

The win leaves Uplyme in third, just four points behind Honiton and seven behind current leaders Filleigh. Honiton were given a tough contest by fifth-placed Upottery as the clubs shared the spoils in a hard-fought draw.

Batting first, Honiton reached 151-

9 with Lapping top scorer on 61 with Broom and Frost claiming three wickets each for Upottery.

In reply, Upottery needed a grafting 50 from skipper David Woolcott to take them 118-8 to earn them seven points against Honiton's 13. Adam Holmes took 3-36 for Honiton.

Axminster secured their future in B Division by beating Chagford by eight runs with Joel Seward claiming 4-15 as Chagford were skittled out for 106 as they chased 114-9, in which Dave Murnane top-scored on 29.

But in C Division Seaton, despite a good performance from skipper Ben Morgan (3-33 and 20 runs) appear destined for relegation after slipping to defeat against Bideford that leaves them second from bottom.

CARLSBERG SOUTH WEST PENINSULA LEAGUE

Carlsberg South West Peninsula League Division One (East)
Ottery St Mary 3
Okehampton Argyle 3

THE Otters will be disappointed not to have taken all three points against the league newcomers as they twice gave away a two-goal cushion.

The home side, with new manager Dave Weeks at the helm, started positively with Dan Norman putting them into the lead after just two minutes with a terrific free kick.

Just after the halfway mark of the opening half at Washbrook Meadows it was 2-0 as Paul Beacham's cross-come-shot foiled the Oke goalkeeper.

That remained the score at the break but Oke grabbed lifeline in the 55th minute when Will Hawken made it 2-1 only for the home side to hit back almost immediately with a thunderous long-range strike from Ben Vine.

When the visitors had Matt Mortimer sent off for a second bookable offence the Otters should have coasted to the three points but they imploded against the ten men in a dreadful last six minutes as first Ed Squire and then Adam Mortimer's 86th minute equaliser earned them an unlikely share of the points.

Crediton Utd 7 Axminster Town 0

THE Tigers opening game turned into a Friday evening horror night as they were swept aside by a new-look Crediton.

The host side, boasting six new players, almost scored at will and but for a terrific performance by goalkeeper Chris Higgs the damage could have been worse.

Crediton also missed a penalty following an incident in which Axminster's Dan Beer was sent off.

COLYTON FOOTBALL CLUB

Tanners' blistering start

*Devon and Exeter League
Division 2
Topsham Town Res 2
Colyton 3*

COLYTON began their league campaign with a tricky away game against newly promoted Topsham Town, but went home with all three points.

Manager Keith Somers was unavailable because of work commitments, so assistant Simon McClellan was put in charge. Missing three key players, Colyton started the better of the two teams, playing some neat football at times and giving their opponents no time to settle on the ball.

The first real chance came after 20 minutes when Marc Potter hit a rasping volley from the edge of the area only to see it crash against the underside of the crossbar and fall the wrong side of the goal line.

As the first half wore on, Topsham began to put their stamp on the game and could have easily taken the lead but for some poor finishing from their striker.

Colyton finally broke the deadlock after 35 minutes when a well-timed run from Callum Somers was found by skipper Paul Millman.

Somers collected the ball, coolly went around the keeper and slotted home to open his account for the season.

No more than two or three minutes after the opening goal, some hesitant defending allowed Topsham to get on level terms and it looked as if honours would be even going into the break. This was until a last minute corner was powered home from close range by Nathan Maddocks at the back post to give the Tanners a deserved 2-1 lead.

Colyton started the second half rather sluggishly and allowed the home side some early chances where keeper Kris Reid was called into action to make some important lastitch saves.

Both teams looked to score the next goal and it came on 70 minutes when Somers rose highest in the box to meet a George Moore corner and thumped his header into the roof of the net.

Topsham earned a late consolation but it was an impressive opening display from Colyton who will be looking to improve on last season's mid table finish.

AN UNBEATEN 122 FOR RICH

Yarcombe celebrates magnificent victory

By KEVIN FAHEY

sport.pulmans@findlenews.co.uk

Devon Cricket League

F Division

Yarcombe and Stockland
(19pts) beat Shaldon (8pts)
by two wickets

A SUPERB unbeaten 122 by Jonathan Rich was the highlight of a magnificent victory by Yarcombe over promotion hopefuls Shaldon.

With just one game remaining the victory has probably come too late for Yarcombe to overtake their rivals and claim the second promotion spot behind Topsham. Yarcombe and Stockland are 16 points adrift of Shaldon going into the final weekend so would need their rivals to suffer a heavy defeat while they take maximum points off Newton St Cyres.

Skipper Nigel Parris said: "Even if we take 20 points I think the best we can hope for is to finish a close third.

"But Topsham and Shaldon have been very consistent and overall we have to be very pleased with our season."

At least Yarcombe can end the season on a high and Saturday's win was a terrific morale-boosting triumph for the club and, in particular, Rich.

Parris described Rich's batting as "belligerent" as he slammed 12 sixes and eight fours in a season's best that underlined his position as the club's leading batsman.

Parris added: "Jonathan has been our best batsman for a few years but Saturday's knock was exceptional."

Put into bat Shaldon reached 183-9 with their batsmen struggling in the face of a hostile spell of bowling from Ben Fuzzard, who finished with figures of 6-38 over two penetrating spells.

In reply Yarcombe were made to work hard but thanks to Rich they reached their target with 184-8.

Parris said: "We are still in the hunt for promotion but I don't think we are quite going to get there.

"But if they do miss out it won't be without a fight."
